

The Racial Justice Commission of the Episcopal Diocese of Massachusetts invites you to a day of reflection and renewal—open to all

Saturday, April 29

9:30 am—2:00 pm

at Church of Our Saviour in Brookline

25 Monmouth St. Brookline, accessible by the MBTA (Registration required)

Answering the Provocative Call: to desire, love, and enfold our differences

Led by Debie Thomas

Author of Into the Mess and Other Jesus Stories: Reflections on the Life of Christ

Be inspired in community with reflections led by renowned author Debie Thomas, with time for silence, shared reflections, prayer, and a meal together. Nourish your imagination and hope for living into the provocative call to love.

Debie Thomas, a columnist and contributing editor of The Christian Century, previously a staff writer for Journey with Jesus, currently serves as Minister of Lifelong Formation at St. Mark's Episcopal Church, Palo Alto, CA. Born in Kerala, South India, and raised in Boston, she writes: "...I grew up juggling a complicated and often confusing mix of identities: South Asian, New England suburban, evangelical, and feminist. In the murky "in-betweenness" of those identities, I learned life is far more varied and messy than it is neat and certain, and that faith is not about finding once-and-for-all answers, but about delving deeper and deeper into mystery."

TO REGISTER: <https://www.diomass.org/event/Debie-Thomas>

FEE: $10.00 includes lunch (scholarships available) REGISTRATION REQUIRED BY APRIL 21

Book Signing: Into the Mess and Other Jesus Stories: Reflections on the Life Of Christ will be available for purchase.

Come, be renewed in the journey toward justice and joy this Easter
